The original document is a handwritten Greek letter, likely a letter of introduction or a request for assistance, written in a cursive script. The text is written on a piece of paper that has been folded into a triangular shape, with the fold visible in the center. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear, including creases and discoloration. The handwriting is in a cursive style, typical of the 19th century. The text is written in Greek, and the paper is marked with a large, stylized 'B' in the center, which is a common feature of the 'B' brand of paper used in the Ottoman Empire. The paper is also marked with the words 'ΔΗΜΟΤΙΚΗ' (Dhymotiki) and 'ΒΙΒΛΙΟΘΗΚΗ' (Bibliothiki) on the left side, indicating it is from a public library.
